COMMUNITY GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- ICEBREAKER: If you could be any age what would you be and what would you want to do?
- James says a clear mark of a life lived against God is full of conflict. Reflect on a recent conflict you've experienced. How might selfish desires have played a role?
- Another mark of a life lived against God is friendship with the world. In what ways do you see the pull of worldly values, beliefs, and practices in your life?
- The good news is God gives grace that we can change. How have you experienced God's grace in moments when you were struggling with selfishness or sin?
- Through Jesus, we can resist the devil and draw near to God. In moments of temptation (or when we feel like God is far), how do we draw near to God practically?
